

How to Use the MoversPOE Website

"MoversPOE's mission is to bring the International Movers Industry into the 21st Century by providing for all the International Movers information needs through the MoversPOE website."

In less than 2 minutes, you can login to the website, describe the consignment you want to ship, get a list of movers, and send an email to several International Movers requesting their quotes. No need to hunt through huge books, type countless emails, make expensive phone calls, and this service is ABSOLUTELY FREE!!!

Do you want to know how to be more efficient & profitable?

Follow these 5 steps....

Step 1:

Go to the MoversPOE website (<http://www.moverspoe.com/>)

Login with your company's "USER NAME" and "PASSWORD"

Step 2:

Press "Locate Agent" on the upper part of the screen or press "Proceed" button lower right.

Step 3:

On this screen you will be asked to:

Describe your Destination/Origin, Commodity, Shipping Mode, Shipping Type, Weight, Volume, Country, Additional Comments, Reference #. If needed, insert "Your Name" and "Your Email".

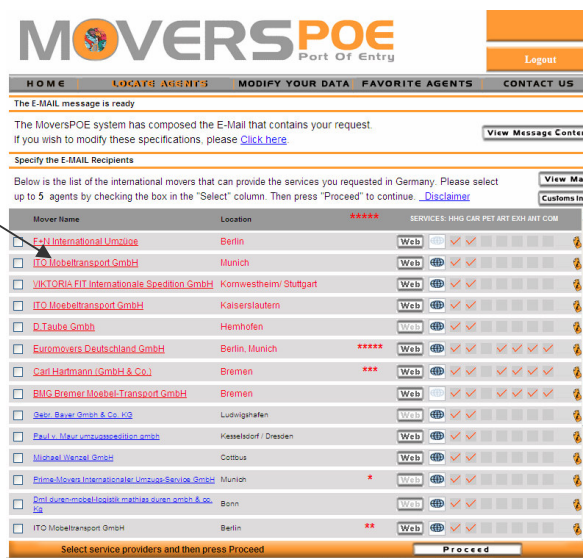

To go to the list of International Movers able to assist you, press "Proceed" button lower right.

Step 4:

Select the mover(s) to receive your request by checking the box next to the company's name.

You may also view your message by clicking on "View Message Content". You can also "View Map" and "Customs Info" (Customs Regulations) by clicking on those boxes.

Some movers have a "STAR" next to their names. Touch the "STAR" with your cursor to see the names of agents who have referred them. Also, you can see which "Services" are provided by each mover. After selecting your preferred agents, press "Proceed" button lower right.

Step 5:

Before you launch your request, MoversPOE gives you the ability to check:

1. The message you will send.
2. The agents you selected.

If all the information is correct, press "Proceed" button lower right.

Congratulations!

You have just sent your rate request in the easiest, most efficient manner possible. An individual request was sent to each mover. A copy of the request, listing all the movers, will be sent to your email, as well.

Additional Features @ MoversPOE

MoversPOE's mission is to bring all information needed by the International Moving Industry to one easy to access location. MoversPOE has launched many useful tools and features for International Movers on its website. Below is a short description of some of our features:

- ★ Professor MoversPOE - This is the place to ask any question you may have related to the moving industry. i.e., "What is the best POE for an LCL to Denver, CO?" or, "Is there a restriction to import dry food stuff to Australia?" – Professor MoversPOE, along with our MoversPOE Advisory Board, will give the most professional and accurate reply. You may also reply and share your comments regarding the questions asked.

- ★ MoversPOE Advisory Board- MoversPOE has found a unique group of industry leaders and powerful MoversPOE members to help guide and lead the International Moving Industry. (To learn more and/or apply for membership on the MoversPOE Advisory Board, please contact us at admin@moverspoe.com)

- ★ MoversPOE STAR System - MoversPOE believes that Price is not the only consideration! It is also very important to know who you are doing business with!! The best way to evaluate an agent's credibility is by getting recommendations from other International Movers that have worked with this agent!!

With the MoversPOE STAR System:

- YOU recommend foreign agents!
- Your foreign colleagues recommend YOU!

- ★ MoversPOE Discussion Forum - Is a professional Discussion Forum for the exchange of information pertaining to the International Moving Industry. All International Movers are welcome to visit the MoversPOE Discussion Forum. You can reply to posted questions and ideas and add your own. Discussion Forum is managed by Professor MoversPOE.

- ★ Modify Your Data – Where you can change any of your company's information appearing on the MoversPOE website. Update the information in "Modify Your Data". When done, press "Proceed" at the bottom right. Then press "Logout" upper right. Your new information will be updated around the world immediately! The first paragraph in "Modify Your Data" is your user report. It shows you the last time you logged on to the MoversPOE website, how many times the website was searched for movers in your location when your company was listed, and how many rate requests you received.

★ All the Information Movers Need - On the MoversPOE homepage you can find the following links:
